

Wednesday, July 19, 2006

Duxbury Clipper

Commonwealth Avenue, a watercolor by Robert Hsiung.

Bumpus Gallery Presents 'Recent Watercolors'

The work of artist Robert Hsiung will be featured at the Helen Bumpus Gallery in the Duxbury Free Gallery beginning June 23 and continuing throughout July and August. A gallery talk and reception to meet the artist will be held at the Gallery on Saturday, July 29, from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. Refreshments will be served and all are invited to attend.

Born in China, Robert Hsiung has lived in the United States since 1952 where he has pursued an architectural career as a principal at Jung/Brannen Associates in Boston. Recently retired, he is now devoting all his to his watercolor painting, which he began in 1993. Since that time, his work has been exhibited in numerous group and solo shows, and many of his paintings have been selected for inclusion in private and corporate collections.

The Helen Bumpus Gallery is located on the main level of the Duxbury Free Library, 77 Alden Street. The exhibit may be viewed during regular library hours. For information call 781-934-2721.